

Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: (Galatians 1:3,4)

Greetings and welcome to our 21st edition of The Good News Magazine. A lot has been happening in the growth of the magazine and we thank the Lord so much for how far He has brought us. We trust this magazine is a blessing to you and with those you share. We are excited about the puzzle and the new things we have introduced like Heaven's Computer Connection! Our desire is to reach all! Our passion is to see even the young people (who are tomorrow's leaders) are reached with love!

Today I am going to start by asking ourselves, "Are we grounded on the Rock?" You are now wondering what I am driving at...well let me take you through this by reading Psalms 18:2,

The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. From the scripture just mentioned, you will understand now what I meant when I started asking the question above. It is plain and clear that the 'ROCK' is the 'LORD' Himself. Now, are we grounded on

GROUNDED ON THE ROCK

GOD/JESUS?

Let's ponder this for a while. Figuratively, the rock is known to be strong, stable and unshakeable. When the storms come they can destroy everything, but the rock remains stable. Now, our lives; trust and hope ought to be grounded on the real ROCK. This Rock is Jesus Christ.

mine would be, you would turn in the opposite direction and run! However, from a spiritual point of view, it's a valid question. Let's look at some Scripture and see if it makes a bit more sense to you. I will then ask you the same question at the end. As odd as it sounds, there are people who take their rock with them everywhere they go. I happen to be one of them, and believe me, although you may not have heard the term before, its been done for thousands of years!

You're Grounded!

By Classroom of the Heart
What does God want from us?
I see a straight-forward answer in the four basic categories into which all of scripture puts itself, according to 2Timothy 3:16.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:
=1) God wants us to become grounded in the understanding, teaching, and use of scripture; that's the doctrine (rules) and instruction (learning) categories.
=2) Equally important, He wants us to be clear and responsible in

He is the Rock that is dependable. He is the Rock that can never be shaken by any force, whether beneath the earth or above, nothing whatsoever shall bring Jesus who is THE ROCK OF AGES down! He is Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End! The First and the Last!

The world we are living in, has become so corrupt, in so many ways and so many injustices in our society. Do you see how the world is drunk in evil deeds? The world hasn't known the Truth about the Rock, who is Jesus.

The Truth is that this Rock whom the builders rejected, was and is and will always be the Chief Cornerstone! This Rock is Truth. This Rock is Jesus. Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one goes to the Father except through Him! If we have to go to the Father we must expect to be grounded on this Rock, Jesus. Proverbs 23:23 - reads, Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

Yes I am talking about the Truth. The Truth is what the current world is lacking. Many scientists are trying to seek the Truth by their own means through complicated technology and yet, only a few have known the real Rock, the real Truth. But I am here to tell you there is more than that!

The Truth is so expensive! Jesus said in John 8:32 - And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free... In other words, we shall know Jesus (Truth) and He (Jesus) shall set us free. I have come to tell the world that there is something to be bought. Something very expensive. Something valuable. It is more than silver. It is more than gold. It is more than the expensive cars some of us drive! The TRUTH. The ROCK, the Ancient of Days in whom we need to be grounded on. Buy the Truth and you shall live. Truth means absolutely Right. No lies in it. When you know the

The Truth Walks With Us, Always

Truth you don't compromise. You don't give in easily in misleading ways. The Truth will discern the alluring spirits, which want to bring us down through deceptiveness and enticements, and cause us to fall victim. The Truth walks with us always.

The Truth is always principled. It is deeply rooted inside a believer. It never sways or beats around the bush. Its words are powerful. You can never challenge the Truth. Even Pilate knew that. He had to wash his hands before the multitude, saying he was innocent of the blood of Jesus.

The Truth will speak of itself. Yeah, the Rock that is unshakeable will defend itself! That is why we need to be grounded on this Rock, Jesus. Truth is so expensive. When we know the Truth we will never go back to our old ways of sin. Buy the Truth and do not sell it. I wish I could put it more clearly. When we are grounded on the Rock we need not leave the Rock. How will you sell that Truth which you know? How will you compromise salvation with earthly things? This ought not to be so. We need not detach ourselves from the Rock. We have to be grounded on the Rock and know the Truth. We have to stand on Truth. If we have Jesus we have the Truth. I finish with this famous story of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, (in Daniel chapter 3.)

These young boys were told to bow down before the King's golden image. This was an order from the King. You all know how strong the King's words are! But these young people, knew the Truth. They knew which Rock they were grounded onto. They never even thought of compromising what they knew. They defied the King's orders. They stood on the solid Rock. Nothing could change their faith...

It may seem difficult; it may cause pain and even death, but stand on the Truth. Let's learn from Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. They said, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up... (Dan 3:17+) They knew the Truth. They were deeply grounded on the Rock.

Now, my question is, Will you be grounded on the Rock? Will you accept Jesus today to be Savior and Lord of your life? Will you make these words become your song: The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower? (Psalms 18:2)

Yes, the TRUTH is all that we need! Find it, stand on it, and proclaim it - without wavering. I assure you that you will behold the Lord's salvation, because you are grounded on the Rock.

Do You Take Your Rock With You?

By Deborah Webster Senese

I'm sure you are familiar with the story of Moses, and his message from the Lord through a burning bush, telling him to go to Egypt. (Exodus 3) The purpose for this, was to set free God's people, the Israelites, from captivity. Moses felt unworthy, unable, and "not the man to do the job." However, he obeyed the Lord, went to Pharaoh, and pleaded for their release. Moses was rejected many times with great hostility. However, upon instruction of the Lord, Moses went back each time the Lord told him to, until finally, Pharaoh agreed to let God's people go.

Here is where we will pick up in scripture exactly what the Lord commanded Moses to do; Exodus 13:17-22 ~

And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt: But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and the children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt. And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you. And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night: He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

But that was not all the Lord provided for them.

Here is where it gets interesting!

If you continue reading on to the book of Numbers, chapter 20, you will see that the Lord not only provided them with food, direction, and most important, stressed that what He commanded should be done THE WAY the Lord says He wants things done. He still provided water for them and their animals in spite of their constant complaining and NOT doing things exactly as the Lord commanded them to do. In verses 7-12;

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink. And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him. And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock? And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also. And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

The Lord's desire was to bless His people and give them a beautiful land that was their own, full of peace and all things needed to provide for them. But because they didn't do exactly what the Lord said and the way He said to do it, there were consequences to be paid.

I believe that many times, we feel that because we admit that we've made a mistake (sinned against God) and He is so forgiving, there are no consequences to be paid. This is not true or Biblical! We can be forgiven, and our sin forgotten by the Lord, and yet, we must still pay the consequences as we see here.

Those consequences did not mean the Lord was done dealing with them, or that He loved them any less. And it doesn't mean He had ceased looking out for them, as He was....

In ways that just blow my mind, have the scriptures shown evidence of His constant watch-care over them the entire time they were in the wilderness. My mind had to keep searching to be sure I wasn't being misled, or misleading anyone, once I really understood it.

Referring to this same account, let's now see what the New Testament has to say about this. I Corinthians 10:1-12 is where we are going to look next. And we need to be very careful as to HOW we read this passage as we can either blow right past it, or have our eyes opened for the first time and really be blown away.

Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; And did all eat the same spiritual meat; And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and the Rock was Christ.

In the first passage, we read how the Lord told Moses to speak to the rock and it would give life-sustaining water. Reading this passage from 1 Corinthians 10, something supernatural takes place; That rock was not merely a rock...that Rock was Jesus Christ... Capital Rock! At first hearing/seeing this, I went right past it. But the more you cross reference, every place in this account, the lower case "r" was used for rock. Until we get to the New Testament, and the Lord reveals to us, that Rock was Jesus! Jesus, the son of God, was with the Israelites all through the wilderness. Leading them, directing them, guiding them, and even providing water for them. I also find it fascinating that in the Garden of Gethsemane, when Jesus knew He was going to be crucified and was praying to the Father,

I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. John 17:14,15

That is exactly what He did for God's children. He, Jesus was the Rock that followed them.. watching over them.

So yes, my friend, Jesus is my Rock. I take Him everywhere I go. I call on Him morning, noon, & night. When heartache is too much to handle, when pain can no longer be managed, when things never seem to work out and you just feel like you can't go on any further, make sure you are grounded to the Rock, and that Rock is Jesus!

*The FUN IS GROWING!
And I CAN HARDLY WAIT !*

Last time we learned that computers are fun for students AND silver-haired folks, alike. Especially when the computers are free, and don't need batteries or special rules to make them work.

Did you try the contest with a junk keyboard? It's FUN! But it gets even more fun, when you discover the computer manual that is just perfect for it. We'll get to that in a little bit.

The key thing to remember is that we're connecting youth, silver-haired seniors, non-technical computers, and especially our Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ.

We'd better show how simple this kind of computing is, by listing just 5 things we need to remember about computing – that's it; one for each right-handed finger. Watch how simple.

=1) God gave computers to us to responsibly use them to magnify Him.

=2) The best guide for computing, by far, is our Bible. The Bible guarantees it! [Details later]

=3) The Holy Spirit has computer teaching skills beyond our imagination.

=4) Kids of every age love them!

=5) The most powerful computers come from the trash – and don't need batteries.

Before we go further, you really must go back and review our 5 new guidelines. Take some real quiet time in getting GROUNDED in their purpose.

Now on our left hand, one finger stands alone with the purpose for which we'll use the computer fingers on the other hand.

That big goal; that target, is to demonstrate to youth how to really listen. This kind of listening grows from down deep within us; down deep where our real tears are made. This bone-deep listening we're talking about, is listening you almost do with a fork.

Yes, it sounds silly; listening with a fork. Let's see what this means.

When we sit down to the table for a yummy meal, we don't grab a fork and dive in. We begin with heads bowed and thank God for the food He's provided, and then we ask Him to strengthen and guide us in how we serve Him – with that strength.

And THEN we pick up our fork feed ourselves, thinking of what His will is for us.

In that same way, we need to listen to others with the same respect and gratitude as at table grace. Listening with a fork means we bone-deep focus – no, FEED on what the other person is telling us. We'll want their voice to sink deep in our heart that we will most-lovingly be an ongoing trusted friend of theirs (just like Jesus is, ours.)

Listening – that bone-deep listening is a skill that is neither understood or practiced, today. It isn't used in the classroom, home, in front of the pulpit, and especially not in our personal prayer time.

The Heaven's Computer Connection of the Good News Magazine, each month seeks to explain the power and purpose of that bone-deep listening – in two ways that both involve youth. The first purpose is to attract youth to bone-deep listening to God's Written Word – our Bible.

Our second way of listening, will help awaken the spirit and first love of our senior generation, by bone-deep listening to the world of our youth, and seeing the boys and girls discover there are people; church people that really care – really LISTEN to them, and all their unanswered questions about life.

The Bulls-Eye goal we are aiming at, is showing our readers, and their churches, how not to become a church described like the church of Ephesus, in Revelation chapter 2. Verse 4 accuses the church of leaving its FIRST LOVE.

The recommendation is to Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent.

Our own spirit of love for our dear Savior, is awakened as we bone-deep listen to the hearts of our youth, and demonstrate how to bone-deep listen to God's voice to each of us – through His Word.

Ask the Lord to put the name of a young person on your heart. Write their name on a piece of paper. Lay that name on your open Bible as you pray. See your spirit awaken as you help that boy or girl learn through you what first love is, make the connection.

evaluating our character and conduct (reproof). Linked to that reproof, is being grounded in the correction (discipline) that draws us back to the path that honors God and attracts others to His will.

We want, here, to show the levels of man's disobedience, and the levels of God's correction. The hope is to change parental cautions (to their children) into strong warnings toward cheerful obedience. Let's begin with a home-made parable. (A parable is a simple earthly story that teaches a heavenly truth.)

A Parable of Disobedience (getting grounded)

A father disciplines his 3 disobedient children, by confining them to their room until he gives permission to come out. (In today's terms it's called, 'getting GROUNDED'). His warning is also that if they go elsewhere than their room, the discipline will be much worse. And if they remain firm where they stand, the discipline will be far more severe.

The result in this parable is that one child obediently goes to his room, the second goes to the living room and plays with some computer toy. The third child is totally defiant to the father, continuing to do just what (s)he was doing, right where (s)he was. The father disciplined each, according to their actions.

God Disciplining His Children.

The actual events in Bible history, of God disciplining His children (nation of Israel; Judah) are found mostly in the Old Testament book of Jeremiah. "their room" would be comparable to Babylon; "living room" to Egypt, and "right where they were" to Jerusalem.

Because Israel; Judah continually disobeyed observing His offerings and commands, God gave them His "go to your room" opportunity to get back on the right track in Jer. 19:8-13.

Then, in 21:8,9 God gives them His 'life or death' choice. The Jews that obeyed God and 'willingly' went into captivity would be allowed to have vineyards, cattle, and growing families... and someday be able to return to their homeland. 29:4-7.

But many of the Jews showed they were staying on their downhill disobedient course of living, by traveling to Egypt (the 'living room'). While in Egypt, the women burned incense to other gods, the men knew it, and allowed it. Jeremiah 44:26-29 tells us they died by the sword and starvation.

So when God tells us we are to 'go to our room', we'd better cheerfully obey, and quick.

WARNING! The following may not be suitable for young ears!

The third group of Jews, didn't adhere to God's 'go-to-your-room' discipline and travel to Babylon. They remained right where they were, the way they were. Very simply, (according to God's warning) the city of Jerusalem was surrounded by the enemy and the literal fulfillment of God's warning, way back in chapter 19:8,9 occurred.

How far can man's unconfessed sin and outright defiance of God ultimately carry him? How far does God's mercy reach, before His wrath of 'correction' causes indescribable treatment of one's own children, (in-family cannibalism) and then death. Lamentations 4:1-10.

So, then, what does God want from us?

=1) Be fully grounded (committed) to our Rock of Salvation, His mercy, peace, purpose, and provision, as we feed on God's precious protected word.

=2) As leaders, in our homes and church families, we must also teach by word and example - responsibility, accountability, and their consequences.

We can see the consequences of sin (our sin) born on the body and character of an innocent Lamb; God's Lamb – Jesus Christ.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John 3:16

My Testimony and My Burden

by David Daniels*

www.MISSIONPILOT.org

Ever since I was a little kid I've always been excited and interested in aviation. I would always run outside and look up when I heard a plane or helicopter fly overhead because I wanted to see what it was or even who it was.

When we were on furlough* in the states we went to a Sunday night service and I can remember the pastor preaching on Heaven and Hell. The pastor boldly and clearly spoke on the damnation of hell and I knew that's where I was heading and that I needed to repent of my sins (I John 1:9) and ask God to come live in my heart and soul.

I can remember the church (for a five year old) being huge and I was intimidated by the size of the crowd. I knew I needed to be saved that night because Romans 3:23 says; "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." I realized I am a sinner that night and that I needed Christ in my heart. Romans 10:10 "For with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation." So I got on my knees next to my bed next to my Mom and I prayed and confessed to God that I'm a sinner in need of Him and I understood that because he sent his Son to the earth who died on the cross for my sins that the penalty for my sin was paid and I asked Christ to come and live in my heart and forgive me of my sins.

I feel like ever since then the Holy Spirit has been putting the desire in my heart to use my passion of Aviation to help fulfill the great commission; 'to go out into the world and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit' Matthew 28:19-20.

The Bible also says in Romans 10:13 - 15, that everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. How then will they call on Him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in Him whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without a preacher? And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "how beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

The Holy Spirit has always used these verses to drive me to want to press on and get the Word of God to those who haven't heard it or had the chance to hear it because of their primitive location. I know that God is using missionaries in remote places like Papua New Guinea and I've always wanted to be a part of that; to be someone who can help deliver food or medical supplies or Bibles to a remote village that needs it; to be a part of the Great Commission.

* David is the son of Russ and Sylvia Daniels who have been missionaries since 1992, now in Uganda, Africa.

of tomorrow's decision-makers, in your church, care center, school, and community? Each of us are needed with hugs, hearing, and a Heaven-touched heart. Ask God how and who you can reach, with the Rock of Truth and Lasting Love.

PARTNER PUZZLE POWER

A really fun easy way to begin reaching out to youth, is to brush your silver hair back, put on your best grandparent smile and ask for help from one of the youth near you.

With your voice and heart tuned to Heaven's leading, become the student and invite the youth to teach you.

Next, grab a pencil and give it to the youth, while you turn to the Good News Magazine's Partner Puzzle page.

Since their eyes are probably better than yours, have them search for the key word in the scripture block.

Now tell me, don't you think that Heaven is going to jump up and down as you lead a young person through scripture?

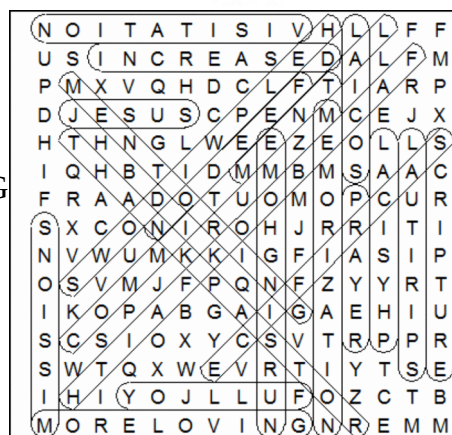

Invite them to tell you about their favorite computer program, but apologize to them for being a little scared of pushing the wrong button and blowing everything up.

Final Words = Does The Title Scare You?

This portion is something of a summation of the whole magazine each month. It's not hard to see the magazine team works really hard to give you a range of Bible guidelines around a general theme.

It seems to be the right time to take a second look at the column title: FINAL WORDS.

Suppose this month's edition really was THE absolute final word you'd hear from us. It could be the government made it unlawful to share the Gospel message with others. How would that strike you? Or it could be the final words you've heard from your church leaders.

Would your mind be filled with regretful statements, like "well, I could have", or "I should have."

Let's back up just a bit. Suppose you somehow knew you only had 2 hours to say and do the things that REALLY needed said and done. It might be your doctor's dreaded prediction – the 2 hours for FINAL WORDS.

It could very well be, the person near you, that needs to learn about the Rock of Truth and Lasting Love, doesn't know how to ask you, for God's provisions for Eternity.

The magazine you hold in your hand, and God's Word, the Bible are partners in drawing the lost soul near you, to the Christ of Calvary's Cross.

John 1: 1-20

1 ¶ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 ¶ And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. 6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. 8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. 9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. 11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not. 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: 13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me. 16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. 17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. 18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? 20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.
